

POLICY ON THE PRESIDENT'S COMPENSATION

The President's compensation is determined by the board of directors after they conduct the President's annual performance evaluation. Any increase in compensation is approved by the board and is granted based upon the annual performance evaluation and the compensation of CEOs at other non-profit organizations.